

Tracie Miles

Tracie is an international conference speaker for Proverbs 31 Ministries, and a contributing writer for the Proverbs 31 Ministries Encouragement For Today online email devotions which reaches 500,000 people every day with God's love and encouragement. She is also a contributing writer for P31 Woman Magazine, and is the author of one book, Reinventing Your Rainbow.

Tracie moved into ministry after spending fifteen years climbing the corporate ladder. After having her heart completely transformed at a women's conference, Tracie felt God calling her to be a speaker and a writer. Although her obedience was not immediate, God worked on her heart until she surrendered to the plans He had for her life, which were better than any plans she could have made for herself. She now enjoys speaking at women's events across the country and motivating women to build intimate relationships with Christ.

Tracie is a mother of three children, ages 12, 15 and 17, and lives in Indian Trail, North Carolina, a suburb of Charlotte. She has been married to her husband, Michael, for over twenty-one years.

Above all else, Tracie loves the LORD and feels blessed to have the humbling privilege of sharing God's love and truths with other women.

CONFERENCE SESSIONS

Session I (Friday Night) Whispers of Relief

Hearing and discerning God's voice is the most important part of our prayer and fellowship with God. Most Christians long to hear God's voice thundering through the air with the answers to their problems and the stress relief they long for. However, God's voice is more like a gentle whisper, requiring an intimate relationship in order to hear it. You will be reminded of how God speaks intimately and personally, and learn how to be more aware of His voice in your own life as you:

- Recognize how to hear God's voice in the unique ways He chooses to speak
- Embrace the importance of prayer and fellowship with God
- Discover the things that may be causing a disconnect between you and God

Session II (Saturday) Staying Afloat In A Sea of Stress

Frazzled, frustrated, fatigued. Over committed, overloaded and overwhelmed. This is how the majority of women feel as a result of being bombarded with relentless stress from everyday life, and sometimes many women feel like jumping overboard. Sadly, most of us are looking for stress relief in all the wrong places, and the worldly relief we may find is only a temporary band-aid. Through this empowering session, you will experience a stress-makeover in heart, mind and soul as you:

- Understand the physical and spiritual benefits of looking to God for stress relief
- Tap into the power and presence of God to regain a life of peace
- Discover how to live a life of joy despite your circumstances through an understanding of how Jesus dealt with stress

Session III (Saturday) Jumping Overboard in Faith

God often calls us to do things that seem beyond our comfort zone or capabilities, possibly causing us to hesitate in our obedience and question our calling. This session will help you realize that God has been equipping you throughout your lifetime for the purpose He destined just for you. You will be motivated to embrace your passion for Christ and develop a new perspective on how you can serve others in wonderful ways that will reflect God's love. This session will empower you to go overboard in your faith, as you:

- Understand how to cultivate a true servant's heart
- Replace the fear of failure with God inspired confidence and enthusiasm for purpose
- Recognize how procrastination results in missing God's best
- Build your desire to faithfully and passionately seek God's will for your life
